

Interactive webpages with JavaScript

JAMIESON COLE

Northern Beaches Christian School

has mastered

Interactive webpages with JavaScript

In this course, students learn how to create interactive webpages using JavaScript. We cover collecting different types of input, using functions and events, making decisions with if statements, and using classes to add style. By combining these skills students learn how to make web pages interactive and ultimately build their own puzzle game.

Dr. James Curran
Co-founder and CEO, Grok Learning